LB 183, 234

according to Speaker Marvel LB 183 will be laid over awaiting amendments. So if there's no objection, we move then to LB 234, Senator Wesely.

SENATOR WESELY: I move the E & R amendments to LB 234.

CLERK: No. Excuse me, Mr. President, the E & R amendments...oh, I'm sorry, go ahead, Senator, I...my mistake.

PRESIDENT: The E & R amendments. Alright.

SENATOR WESELY: So moved.

PRESIDENT: The motion is to adopt the E & R amendments on LB 234. Any discussion? All those in favor of adopting the E & R amendments to LB 234 signify by saying aye. Opposed nay. The E & R amendments are adopted on LB 234. Senator Wesely.

CLERK: No, I have other amendments.

PRESIDENT: Other amendments. Alright, amendment on the desk, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, yesterday when we last considered LB 234, Senator Reutzell and Senator Landis had amendments pending. There were...there was a question as to division of the amendments. The amendments were divided. The first amendment was defeated. I now have pending the second Reutzell amendment. Mr. President, the Reutzell amendments may be found on Page 1086, and we're now discussing the second Reutzell amendment as I understand it.

PRESIDENT: Alright, the Chair recognizes Senator Reutzell on the second Reutzell amendment.

SENATOR REUTZEL: Mr. President, I would ask unanimous consent of the body to withdraw those pending amendments. I understand there are other amendments that are being or have been filed in lieu of those. I would like to withdraw mine.

PRESIDENT: So you wish to withdraw them? Senator Reutzell has withdrawn the pending Reutzell amendments. Now any motions on the desk, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Lamb now moves to amend. Would you like me to read them, Senator? On Page 18, line 1, strike, well correct the spelling of the word "lieu".
